

Suneli Introduces The New Fontana Series: A Real Charmer!

(Miami, FL. September 29, 2006). Suneli introduces the Fontana Series to the market. A terrific bath furniture for today's demanding schedules and sophisticated lifestyles.

The Fontana series affords simple luxury. It is a freestanding bath furniture that sits on four designer stainless steel legs with several compartments and drawers providing for ideal storage. It is made with solid wood, beautifully combining with elements of stainless steel, marble and vitreous.

A handsome rectangular ceramic basin sits on a rich cream marfil marble countertop. A matching wall mounted mirror completes this series. The Fontana Series is available in a rich coffee color.

Distinctive for its design and grand for its practicality, the Fontana series is simply a wonderful solution for any bathroom.
